El Centro College

DALLAS COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

Yes, qualified El Centro College students can ride free on DART trains or buses... anytime, anywhere.

You'll save money on gas, parking, other auto expenses and depreciation while helping to save the environment.

Why El Centro is the college for you:

- Low tuition.
- Located downtown at the gateway to the West End.
- Qualified students ride DART free.
- New Student and Technology Center.
- Wide choice of educational programs including more than 50 technical programs, transferable core courses and continuing/workforce education programs.
- Many financial aid options, including scholarships, loans and grants.
- Counseling and special services tailored to your needs.
- Small classes, flexible timing and personalized education.
- You can register online.
- We've educated Dallas since 1966.

How students qualify to ride DART free:

Students must be currently enrolled at El Centro in six or more credit hours during the fall or spring semesters or three credit hours for summer terms. ECC continuing education students are also eligible with 96 units during the fall and spring or 48 in summer terms. Pass is available only after all requirements are met and the courses have met their respective certification days.
