El Centro College Corporate Solutions works with Dallas businesses and organizations to provide employee training that is targeted to meet operational needs, improvement strategies, and skills development. Your goals for high-performing staff and organizational objectives are our goals as well. You can count on us to provide consultation and assessment necessary for effective planning and customization of services that will best fit your needs.

ASSESSMENT and TRAINING

Take advantage of professional assessment services as well as customized training by experts. Some of our most-requested training topics, such as health care and languages, can be found on the list to the left. We can also provide training for certification, such as CPR and First Aid, as well as Continuing Education Unit certificates for your professional development.

CONVENIENT to YOU

Our training can be delivered at your site and on your schedule. If you need training facilities, we have them at a choice of campuses around downtown Dallas. We also have selected courses available for individual distance learning. Not least in this economic climate, we are confident that you will find our pricing to be competitive.

LEAN SIX SIGMA TRAINING

Learn how to streamline business processes using Lean Six Sigma principles and metrics. Successful American training fundamentals refined in the Toyota Production System form the basis for small-step workplace improvements on the way to a lasting corporate culture of continuous improvement. A free overview is available.
