

Mediation/Conflict Management

Conflict Management Specialist Certificate

Statement of Purpose

The purpose of this State-approved certificate program is to establish students as competent conflict resolution specialists emphasizing the practice of mediation. Our program has high standards of accountability for student success and achievement. The array of courses in the certificate program is designed to produce competent mediators and conflict resolution professionals who can ably assist individuals, groups, and organizations to achieve successful and enduring resolution of disputes and conflicts.

The educational foundation provided by this program indicates to both students and their potential clients that holders of the Conflict Management Specialist Certificate from El Centro College are well equipped with conflict management and conflict resolutions skills and have a commitment to professional excellence. There are two separate certificates, one for credit and one for non-credit.
