

Grammar & Punctuation

The following links will give you the knowledge you need to be a grammatical writer. Below are some of the most common problems as well as comprehensive explanations.

- St. Cloud University
  - "Subject Verb Agreement"
  - "Verb Tenses"
  - "Parallelism"
  - "Comma Rules"
  - "Comma Splices/Fused Sentences and Run-Ons"
  - "Common Clauses of Fragments"
  - "Pronoun/Antecedent Agreement"
- University of Pennsylvania – Jack Lynch
  - "Grammar and Style Notes"
- University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
  - "Fragments and Run-Ons"
  - "Commas"
  - "Using Gender-Sensitive Language"
  - "Style"
- Guide to Grammar and Writing: Look in the Word and Sentence Level. There are also Grammar Quizzes.
- Grammar Girl: this is a podcast that offers quick audio discussions on various grammar rules.
- ChompChomp.com: This website has practice exercises for a variety of different grammatical concepts.