

Research & Documentation

These are excellent links about the entire research paper process.

El Centro's Library is the best source for much of this information.

- Purdue OWL
 - "Writing a Research Paper"
 - "Paraphrasing"
 - "Summarizing"

- St. Cloud State University
 - "Using APA Format"
 - "Using Online Sources"
 - "Using MLA Format"
 - "Using Quotations"
 - "Punctuating Quotations"
 - "Paraphrasing"

- University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
 - "Plagiarism"

When quoting or paraphrasing make sure to jot down the full citation information for all of the sources that you use. Include:

- Author's name
- Title of the Article or Chapter
- Title of the Publications (Newspaper, Magazine, Book...)
- Editor(s)
- Volume, Issue Number
- Date of the Publication
- Books: City of Publication and Publisher