The student's 2018-2019 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called Verification. The law says that before awarding federal student aid, we may ask the student to confirm the information that the student (and or parent(s) or spouse, if applicable) reported on their FAFSA. To verify that the student provided correct information, the financial aid administrator will compare the student's FAFSA with the information collected. If there are differences with the student's FAFSA, information may need to be corrected. Please note: This form is not to be used for Ability to Benefit.

High School Completion Status

Students will need to provide one of the following documents indicating high school completion status:

- A copy of the student's high school diploma¹
- A copy of the student's final, official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded
- A copy of the student's General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript
- An academic transcript that indicates the student's successful completion of at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree (DCCCD is a two-year degree-granting institution)
- If the student was homeschooled and state law requires the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential
- If the student was homeschooled and state law does not require the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting

¹Foreign documents must be evaluated by foreign credential evaluators. Please visit www.dcccd.edu for a list of foreign credential evaluators.

Note: Students enrolled prior to July 1, 2012, may be considered Title IV eligible through one of the alternative methods as defined in Volume 1, Chapter 1, of the 2011-2012 Federal Student Aid Handbook.

- The student has met one of the alternative methods and therefore meets the equivalency of a high school diploma.

I have reviewed all required documentation related to the student's high school completion status and certify the student is eligible to continue receiving Title IV assistance.
